SECOND COLLECTION NEXT SUNDAY - The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was founded in 1822 by a young woman from Lyons, France, named Pauline Jaricot. She, along with several other women who worked in the factories of France, would gather each week in prayer for the missions and missionaries. Pauline insisted that her efforts be directed to all the Church's missions, that it be universal. From Pauline's vision came the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. This Society has become the Church's official organization for mission aid. The Society for the Propagation of the Faith continues to seek prayer and sacrifice for the world's missions. Help is offered for pastoral and evangelizing programs, for catechists and catechetical work, to build churches and chapels, for the work of religious communities in health care and education, and for communication and transportation needs. Your generosity is most appreciated.

Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been purchased at a price. Therefore glorify God in your body. (1 Cor. 6:17-20)
