ALL SAINTS DAY – Thursday, November 1, is the solemn holy day of All Saints Day. This day is a Holy Day of Obligation/Opportunity! The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven. Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints, All Saints' Day observances tend to focus on known saints --that is those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church. At Holy Name Church, Mass will be celebrated at 12:00 Noon and at 5:30 PM.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ENDS NEXT SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, AT 2 AM. Be sure to turn back your clocks one hour. (Spring Forward, Fall Back!)

THE ELECTION SEASON of 2018 is upon us. The general election takes place on Tuesday, November 6. While the election is a most important function of our democracy and an essential part of the political process in our American society, it is also a huge opportunity to shape our world according to the teachings of Jesus, the values of the Gospel, and the promotion of justice and peace. How we vote and who and what we vote for ought to be something we weigh in our conscience, that we conscientiously deliberate and decide according to our deeply held beliefs and values, and not just for superficial political reasons. We must vote our conscience. Catholics may legitimately disagree about candidates and issues, but a Catholic voter ought always to listen to his or her conscience, and seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit when making this decision, which has the potential to make our world more just, promote the dignity of the human person and protect human rights. (St. Andrew Bulletin)

“Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you.”
(Mark 10:50)

THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER IS DEVOTED TO THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY - As the weather grows colder and the leaves fall, and Thanksgiving and Christmas approaches, it is natural that our thoughts turn to those whom we have loved who are no longer with us. How appropriate, then, that the Catholic Church offers us November, which begins with All Saints Day and All Souls Day, as the Month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory—those who have died in grace, yet who failed in this life to make satisfaction for all of their sins.

In recent years, perhaps no Catholic doctrine has been more misunderstood by Catholics themselves than the doctrine of Purgatory. Consequently, we tend to downplay it, even seem a little embarrassed by it, and it is the Holy Souls who suffer because of our discomfort with the doctrine.

Purgatory is not, as many people think, one last trial. All of those who make it to Purgatory will one day be in Heaven. Purgatory is where those who have died in grace, but who have not fully atoned for the temporal punishments resulting from their sins, go to finish their atonement before entering Heaven. A soul in Purgatory may suffer, but he has the assurance that he will ultimately enter Heaven when his punishment is complete. Catholics believe Purgatory is an expression of God's love, His desire to cleanse our souls of all that might keep us from experiencing the fullness of joy in Heaven.

As Christians, we don't travel through this world alone. Our salvation is wrapped up with the salvation of others. We believe that those Holy Souls for whom we pray will continue to pray for us after they have been released from Purgatory. If we live Christian lives, we too will likely find ourselves in Purgatory someday, and our acts of charity toward the Holy Souls there now, will ensure that they remember us before the throne of God when we are most in need of prayers. It's a comforting thought, and one that should encourage us, especially in this month of November, to offer our prayers for the Holy Souls. (thoughtco.com)

We must say many prayers for the souls of the faithful departed, for one must be so pure to enter heaven.

– Saint John Vianney
