ROSARY BEFORE MASS – We invite you to join us each Sunday, at 5:00 PM as we pray the Most Holy Rosary in the Chapel of St. Therese. (The Chapel is located on the right side of the building and may be accessed through main church or from outside)

THE "JUDAS SHUFFLE" Judas received Our Lord and went outside to summon the guards to arrest Jesus. Today, many receive Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and go straight out to the parking lot. Please consider staying at Mass a few moments more to pray in thanksgiving and to receive the final blessing.

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God.
(Sirach 3:17-18)

Why can't priests be married? There are married priests! In fact in the Eastern Catholic Rite it is common for priests to be married and have families. Further, in the Latin rite (which is what you are a part of if you attend Holy Name Church!) there are a few married priests, converted ministers from other faiths, who are ordained to the Catholic priesthood. This, however, is not common. In neither the Latin rite nor the Eastern rites do priests (or deacons) marry after they have been ordained, except in extraordinary circumstances.

Theologically, it is important to realize that priests serve in the place of Christ and therefore, their ministry specially configures them to Christ. As is clear from Scripture, Christ was not married (except in a mystical sense, to the Church). By remaining celibate and devoting themselves to the service of the Church, priests more closely configure and consecrate themselves to Christ.

As Christ himself makes clear, none of us will be married in heaven (Mt 22:23-30). By remaining unmarried in this life, priests are more closely aligned to this final state in heaven.

Paul makes it very clear that remaining single allows one's attention to be undivided in serving the Lord. I should like you to be free of anxieties. An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But a married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife and he is divided. (1 Cor 7:32-35). Paul recommends celibacy to all (1 Cor 7:7) but especially to ministers, who as soldiers of Christ he urges to abstain from "civilian affairs" (2 Tm 2:3-4).
