PSALMS

M: Our God will come to save us!

T: Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous deeds.

*W. O bless the Lord, my soul!
Th The Lord is gracious and merciful; slow to anger, and of great kindness.*

*F: Those who follow you, Lord, will have the light of life.
Sat: You are the highest honor of our race.*

O God, who willed that St. John the Baptist should go ahead of Your Son both in his birth and in his death, grant that, as he died a martyr for truth and justice, we, too, may fight hard for the confession of what You teach. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION - One of the four Marian Dogmas is the Immaculate Conception which is also this month's devotion. The Blessed Virgin Mary, according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, in the first moment of her conception, by a singular privilege of Almighty God, and by virtue of the foreseen merits of Jesus Christ, our Saviour and hers, was preserved from all stain of original sin. The Catholic Church teaches that Mary was conceived by normal biological means in the womb of her mother, Saint Anne, but God acted upon her soul, keeping it "immaculate". This age-old belief of the Church was defined by Pope Pius IX in 1854 as an article of revealed truth. (immanugrace.jimdoofree.com)

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is a Holy Day of Obligation. The vigil Mass will be celebrated at 5:30 PM on Monday, December 7. Masses will be celebrated at 12:00 PM, and 5:30 PM on December 8.

*Oh Mary, conceived without sin,
Pray for us who have recourse to thee.*

*The lord does not delay his promise, as some regard "delay," but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.
(2 Peter 3:9)*

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

The Blessed Virgin Mary revealed herself to St. Juan Diego (Feast Day December 9) in the 16th century near Mexico City in Mexico, and this apparition became known as Our Lady of Guadalupe. Juan Diego saw an apparition of the Blessed Virgin on the Hill of Tepeyac on December 9, 1531, the feast day of the Immaculate Conception in the Spanish Empire during that time. After a request to prove her identity, Our Lady asked Juan Diego to gather roses (which were neither native to the area or in season) that were growing on the hill and take them to the archbishop. Juan Diego did so and placed the roses in his tilma (or cloak). Upon opening the tilma to reveal the miraculous roses to the archbishop, instead there was something even more miraculous present in the tilma--an image of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

In the image Our Lady wears traditional Aztec garments of royalty and a black sash around her waist, which indicated pregnancy in the Aztec culture to which she was revealed. A mass conversion of millions of Aztecs to the Christian faith soon followed, ending the human sacrifices, especially child sacrifices, that they practiced. A church was built on the Hill of Tepeyac to mark the apparition site and today it is one of the most famous Catholic pilgrimage sites in the world. In this cathedral on display is the original tilma of Juan Diego that still displays the miraculous Our Lady of Guadalupe image. The image has been subjected to scientific testing to prove its miraculous authenticity. Our Lady of Guadalupe is the patron saint of the Americas, and also patroness of unborn children. The feast day of Our Lady of Guadalupe is December 12. (catholiccompany.com)
