ADVENT REFRESHER - Today the Church celebrates the Fourth Sunday of Advent. During each Sunday of the Advent season, we light a different candle. The lighting of the first candle symbolizes expectation, while the second symbolizes hope, the third joy and the fourth purity. The Christ candle which is white, is lit on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day reminding Christians that Jesus is the light of the world.

WATCH SPECIAL EWTN ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS PROGRAMMING – EWTN is proud to bring you LIVE Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Masses from Rome and the Basilica of the National Shrine in Washington, D.C. Also, they will be airing inspiring musical performances, specials for children and teens, and new holiday presentations that the whole family will enjoy. Watch or listen to EWTN TV & EWTN Radio on your local channel, online, or even on your smartphone, using our free EWTN App! For more information, go to ewtn.com.

LATE CHRISTMAS DAY MASS - There are many people who travel on Christmas day, or who are required to work on Christmas Day. That is why we offer a late-day Mass on Christmas Day, beginning at 5:15 p.m. If you know someone who is looking for a late-day Mass on Christmas, please let them know of this celebration of our Savior's birth. For more information visit www.saintjosephcathedral.org.

EXPERIENCE ALPHA! - You are invited to experience Alpha at Immaculate Conception Church (414 E. North Broadway). Alpha is a ten-week opportunity for adults who are interested in encountering Jesus in a new and personal way. Come and enjoy dinner, followed by a short DVD presentation, and small group discussion. Alpha will be held on Tuesday evenings (6:30 – 8:30 pm) beginning January 15, 2019. Childcare is provided. Register now as a Guest at www.iccols.org or call the IC Parish Office for more information at 614-267-9241

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.

(John 1:14)

*Honor and praise to the Love made flesh,
Who came to give himself to us!
Honor Him, O my soul, for he comes to save you.
Come, hasten to greet him!
He does not hold back—all of himself he gives
In his desire to be one with you.
Will you not give all of yourself to him?
Will you not hasten to embrace him?
Think of what he gives you, and what he demands—
That you be as generous as he.
Leaving heaven behind, all alone,
Without the trappings of wealth or glory,
No servants to minister to him, no palace to house him,
He manifested himself on earth in a stable.
“Why did you leave the golden throne resplendent with gems,
Why did you put aside the dazzling crown?
Why did you leave the order of cherubim,
The seraphim, that joyous court of ardent love,
The honored servants and courtiers you loved
as brothers—
Why did you leave them all, O Lord?
“In place of your glorious throne,
A manger and a little straw;
In place of a starry crown,
Poor swaddling clothes
And the warm breath of an ox and an ass;
In place of a glorious court, Mary and Joseph.
“Were these the actions of someone drunk,
or out of his senses?
How could you abdicate kingdom and riches,
A renunciation that verges on madness?
Did someone promise you other and greater treasure?
O measureless love that would cede
Such glory as yours for such humble estate!”
(Brother Jacopone da Todi, o.f.m. († 1306) was a Franciscan poet)*
