THE HOLY SEASON OF LENT – It's here! Wednesday is Ash Wednesday. Mass will be celebrated, and ashes distributed here at Holy Name at the 5:30 PM Mass

LENTEN OPPORTUNITIES AT HOLY NAME.

Confessions are heard one hour before daily Mass. Please take advantage of these precious opportunities for reconciliation. Stations of the Cross will be prayed every Friday immediately following the 5:30 PM Mass.

Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am holy.
(Leviticus 19:1)

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE – Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. These norms are obligatory from age 18-59. When fasting, a person is permitted one full meal that day. If needed, two smaller meals that together do not equal a full meal are permissible. Abstinence is the denying of oneself meat at any meal that day.

ASH WEDNESDAY COLLECTION – The Ash Wednesday collection will benefit the Joint Organization for Inner-city Needs (J.O.I.N.) J.O.I.N. operates under Catholic Charities of the Columbus Diocese. J.O.I.N. provides emergency assistance to the poor and vulnerable throughout the diocese. Assistance may be in the form of food, medications, utilities, infant needs, transportation, personal care, household needs, and more. Charitable almsgiving is a tenant of Lent. Please consider a donation on Ash Wednesday.

THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY is traditionally devoted to the Holy Family. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, guide our families here on earth. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, make our lives and our homes like yours. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, make our home life a foretaste of heaven here on earth. Almighty God, whose only-begotten Son was born of a virgin and submitted himself to the authority and vocation of a carpenter, grant us a share in his humility so that we may be raised to share the joyful company of the same Virgin and Carpenter in your heavenly kingdom. Amen

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES OF COLUMBUS - Spring

Clean Up - St. Joseph, Resurrection, Holy Cross and Mt.

Calvary Catholic Cemeteries will begin removing wintertime decorations beginning March 2nd, weather permitting.

Families are advised to remove any personal keepsakes they wish to retain as soon as possible.

The Catholic traditions of Prayer, fasting, and charitable giving continue to be good practices during Lent or at any time. But, you might think, how do I prepare myself for this season? What needs to happen within so that I can practice with more integrity and intention whatever I'm doing on the outside? There are plenty of ideas for actions and practices during Lent; coming up with ideas usually is not the problem. But we don't want to do anything simply to be doing it, even if it's a good thing. We don't want to make a list of merciful works so that we can place a checkmark beside each one as we accomplish it.

It's good to have a plan for doing. It's also good to have a plan for being. How do I want to be during Lent this year? More quiet and thoughtful? More open to God's desires? Better able to sit with people who need me? More attentive to sacred readings, whether in church or in private? Do I need to be more compassionate toward my own fears and failings? Do I need to become more courageous about using the gifts God has given me? In the days prior to Lent, try one or more of these suggestions.

Ask God, every day, "What does my soul need?" Just ask, and wait quietly. Because we're very good at fooling ourselves about how we're doing, it might take several days of praying this question before we're truly open and humble enough to know the answer.

Ask God, every day, "What about my life makes you happy?" Yes, when God looks at your life, some parts of it—perhaps many aspects of it—bring joy to God's heart. Think of how your children or grandchildren or other people close to you make you happy. God is in relationship with you, which means that your sins grieve God's heart, but also that your growth and love and freedom and kindness bring joy to God of the universe. Again, you will probably need to pray this a few times before you are willing to consider that you give God pleasure, that you make God happy in any way. Stick with this little prayer and keep listening. (con't. next column)

Tell God, and yourself, every day, "I want to be open to the graces of this Lenten season." Maybe you're not open right now, or you're not as open and willing as you'd like to be or think you should be. What else is new? We can always open our lives a bit more, let go of more stuff, listen better, and do more quickly and passionately what we know helps nurture God's kingdom on earth.

This is a beginning: three short and simple prayer starters to ready yourself for the holy season.

*Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning;
Rend your hearts, not your garments,
and return to the Lord, your God. (Joel 2:12)*
