COLLECTION FOR CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

TODAY - This collection supports Catholic organizations that carry out international relief and solidarity efforts. CRS helps those suffering at home and across the globe all of whom are Jesus in disguise. Programs supported by the collection include relief and resettlement for victims of persecution, war, and natural disasters; development projects to improve living conditions for the poor; legal, pastoral and support services for immigrants; peace and reconciliation work for people suffering from violence; and advocacy efforts. Please prayerfully consider what you are able to give. May God Bless you!

LENTEN OPPORTUNITIES - Confessions are heard Sunday to Friday, one hour before 5:30 PM Mass. On Saturdays, Confession is heard from 11-12 PM. Chaplet of Divine Mercy prayed Sundays, after 10:00 AM Mass. Stations of the Cross will immediately follow the 5:30 PM Mass each Friday of Lent. To receive brief (and free!) Daily E-mail Lenten Reflections go to: Bishop Robert Barron: LentReflections.com

CATHOLIC TIMES - If you have not turned in the $17 cost for your copy of the Catholic Times, please do so ASAP. The subscription list will be submitted next week. Thank you.

*We implore you on behalf of Christ,
be reconciled to God.
For our sake
he made him to be sin who did not know sin,
so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.
(2 Corinthians 5:20-21)*

THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS OF THE UNITED STATES are pleased to offer once again to the Catholic faithful Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, our teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics in the United States.

"The Church equips its members to address political and social questions by helping them to develop a well-formed conscience. ... Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere "feeling" about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good while shunning what is evil." To read this document visit:

*Heavenly Father,
Help me to form my conscience
not by the media, or public opinion,
but by the timeless Word of God. Amen.*

*"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever."
(Hebrews 13:8)*

WHAT IS LAETARE SUNDAY? Although our Mass is conducted in English, the fact is that Latin remains the official language of the Catholic Church. Latin reasserts itself today, Laetare Sunday, or the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Laetare means, "Rejoice" in Latin. The entrance antiphon is Isaiah 66:10-11, which begins "Laetare, Jerusalem" ("Rejoice, O Jerusalem") Laetare Sunday has traditionally been viewed as a day of celebration, on which the austerity of Lent is briefly lessened. It has a counterpart in Advent: Gaudete Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent, when purple vestments are exchanged for rose ones. The point of both days is to provide us encouragement as we progress toward the end of each respective penitential season. (Scott P. Richert /catholicism.about.com)

FOURTH WEEK OF LENT - The gospels this week are from John and make it very clear that Jesus faced opposition that couldn't accept who he is. We see that Jesus comes to lay down his life that we might live. So, this week of Lent is an important time for us to ask ourselves if there are any parts of our hearts, any of our patterns that oppose Jesus and his desire to give us life. This kind of honesty can transform our lives. It can allow the grace of God to bring reconciliation and healing we might not have imagined. Even if it hasn't been easy to get really engaged with Lent so far, we can still make a beginning, even now. The key is openness and desire. If we can feel any attraction, any sign that the Lord is possibly drawing us, then the Lord can work with us - no matter what resistance or fear we might also be experiencing. All we have to do is act out of these desires and simply ask the Lord for the grace to help us be more honest and more open to what he is offering us.
