PSALMS

M: Those who are victorious I will feed from the tree of life.

T: I will seat the victor beside me on my throne.

W. Holy, holy, holy Lord, mighty God.

*Th The Lamb has made us a kingdom of priests to serve our God.
F: How sweet to my taste is your promise!
Sat: Blessed be the Lord, my Rock!*

*For all of you are children of the light and children of the day.
We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.
(1 Thessalonians 5:4-6)*

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION – During these unsettling times of division in our country, division in the Church, and worries regarding Covid, come place your fear and anxieties at the feet of our Lord and ask for His peace and guidance. Pray before our Lord for our Church, our country and for each other. We have expanded our holy hours of Eucharistic Adoration in the St. Therèse Chapel here at Holy Name Parish. Hours of Adoration with Exposition will begin after the 5:30 Mass Mondays and continue around the clock until 4:30 PM Fridays. (Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will move to the main church M – Fri. from 4:30 PM till Mass begins at 5:30.) Please contact Bill and Mary Beth Hinger to sign up for a weekly holy hour @ 614-560-1555 or bhinger@columbus.rr.com

You can register by visiting our website at oppeace.org or call or text Sister Maidung Nguyen at 405-248-7027 or email mdnguyen@oppeace.org.

*Eternal Father, I offer You
the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus Christ, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today,
for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, those in the Universal Church, in my home, and in my family.*

(St. Gertrude – Feast Day November 16)

NOVEMBER IS DEDICATED to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church Suffering (those in Purgatory) and the Church Militant (those alive in this world) constitute in their relations a second circle of most vital activities. Having entered into the night "wherein no man can work," the Suffering Church cannot ripen to its final blessedness by any efforts of its own, but only through the help of others—through the intercessory prayers and sacrifices (suffragia) of those living members of the Body of Christ who being still in this world are able in the grace of Christ to perform expiatory works. The Church has from the earliest times faithfully guarded the words of Scripture that it is a holy and a wholesome thing to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins. [2 Macab. 12, 43] The suppliant cry of her liturgy: "Eternal rest give to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them," can be heard already in the Acts of the martyrdom of SS. Perpetua and Felicitas (A.D. 203) and is represented in numerous sepulchral inscriptions of the most ancient period, while theologians and Fathers of the Church, beginning with Tertullian, have supplied its substantial proof. . . . So fundamental indeed and so natural to man's hope and desire and love is this belief, that historians of religion have discovered it among almost all non-Christian civilized peoples: a striking illustration of Tertullian's saying that the human soul is naturally Christian. PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

“Soldiers! Let us humble ourselves before the Lord, our God, asking through Christ, the forgiveness of our sins, beseeching the aid of the God of our forefathers in the defense of our homes and our liberties, thanking Him for His past blessings, and imploring their continuance upon our cause and our people.”

“Knowing that intercessory prayer is our mightiest weapon and the supreme call for all Christians today, I pleadingly urge our people everywhere to pray. Believing that prayer is the greatest contribution that our people can make in this critical hour, I humbly urge that we take time to pray - to really pray.”
“Let there be prayer at sunup, at noonday, at sundown, at midnight - all through the day. Let us pray for our children, our youth, our aged, our pastors, our homes. Let us pray for the churches.”

“Let us pray for ourselves, that we may not lose the word ‘concern’ out of our Christian vocabulary. Let us pray for our nation. Let us pray for those who have never known Jesus Christ and His redeeming love, for moral forces everywhere, for our national leaders. Let prayer be our passion. Let prayer be our practice.” (- General Robert E. Lee)

*How truly blessed we shall be if at the price of even very great sacrifices
we shall have made God known and loved by one more soul!
