PSALMS

*M: To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
T: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.
W: The Lord is my light and my salvation.
Th Let hearts rejoice who search for the Lord.
F: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord
Sat: How great are the works of the Lord!*

*Who can ascend the mountain of the Lord, or who may stand in his holy place? One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean, who desires not what is vain.
(Psalm 24:3-4)*

TODAY IS THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS – Who are these glorious saints? People who have lived upon earth as we have, who have known our miseries, our difficulties, our struggles. Some of them we recognize easily, for the Church has raised them to the honors of the Altar but the great majority are entirely unknown to us. They are humble people who lived obscurely in the accomplishment of duty, without display, without renown, whom no one here below remembers, but whom the heavenly Father looked upon, knew in secret, and having proved their fidelity, called to His glory. The honorable positions occupied by some in this vast gathering, or the mighty deeds accomplished by others, no longer possess any value of themselves: eternal beatitude is not determined by the great things achieved here below. One thing only endures, for the humble and the great, the poor and the wealthy: the degree of love they had attained, to which corresponds the degree of glory which now renders them eternally happy.
(-Fr. Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen, OCD)

AS CATHOLICS APPROACH THE POLLS, we are asked to weigh many important issues. The U.S. bishops and Pope Francis have reaffirmed that “the threat of abortion remains our preeminent priority because it directly attacks life itself, because it takes place within the sanctuary of the family, and because of the number of lives destroyed.* We do not dismiss other threats to human life and dignity, but absolute priority is given to upholding and defending our brothers’ and sisters’ most basic right—to live. (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship*)

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION – During these unsettling times with the election a few days away, division in the Church, and worries regarding Covid, come place your fear and anxieties at the feet of our Lord and ask for His peace and guidance. Pray before our Lord for our Church, our country and for each other. We will be expanding our holy hours of Eucharistic Adoration in the St. Therése Chapel here at Holy Name Parish. Hours of Adoration with Exposition will begin after the 5:30 Mass this Monday, Nov. 2, and continue around the clock until 4:30 PM Friday, Nov. 6th (at which time exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will move to the main church till Mass begins at 5:30.) We will persist in the Mon. – Fri. continuous Eucharistic Adoration indefinitely. Please contact Bill and Mary Beth Hinger to sign up for a weekly holy hour @ 614-560-1555 or bhinger@columbus.rr.com

*“The time you spend with Jesus in The Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth.”
~ St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta ~*

PRAY THE ROSARY! Please join us each Sunday in the chapel of St. Therese at 5:00 PM to pray the Rosary prior to 5:30 Mass.

GRATIA PLENA RELIGIOUS GOODS - Alycia Hartley, business owner of Gratia Plena Religious Goods will be at Holy Name the weekend of Friday, November 6th. She will be at all the weekend Masses offering religious goods/gifts for all your religious needs. You will find her downstairs in the undercroft. 10% of the proceeds go back to Holy Name parish! Please stop by and check out the religious goods available.

NOVEMBER IS DEDICATED to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines purgatory as a “purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven,” which is experienced by those “who die in God’s grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified” (CCC 1030). It notes that “this final purification of the elect . . . is entirely different from the punishment of the damned” (CCC 1031). The purification is necessary because, as scripture teaches, nothing unclean will enter the presence of God in heaven (Rev. 21:27) and, while we may die with our mortal sins forgiven, there can still be many impurities in us, specifically venial sins and the temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven.

“God creates out of nothing.
Wonderful you say. Yes, to be sure,
but he does what is still more wonderful:
he makes saints out of sinners.”
(-Soren Kierkegaard)
