THE MONTH OF OCTOBER IS DEVOTED TO THE ROSARY. - In the spiritual journey of the Rosary, based on the constant contemplation – in Mary’s company – of the face of Christ, this demanding ideal of being conformed to him is pursued through an association which could be described in terms of friendship. We are thereby enabled to enter naturally into Christ’s life and as it were to share his deepest feelings. In this regard Blessed Bartolo Longo has written: “Just as two friends, frequently in each other’s company, tend to develop similar habits, so too, by holding familiar converse with Jesus and the Blessed Virgin, by meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary and by living the same life in Holy Communion, we can become, to the extent of our lowliness, similar to them and can learn from these supreme models a life of humility, poverty, hiddenness, patience and perfection. (Saint John Paul II).

PLEASE JOIN US here at Holy Name, each Sunday at 5:00 PM as we pray the Rosary in our Chapel.

EXTRAORDINARY MISSIONARY MONTH - This is a special moment in the life of the Church. In honor of the one hundredth anniversary of Maximum Illud, Pope Benedict XV’s apostolic letter on the activity of missionaries, October has been declared an Extraordinary Missionary Month, that we might have a greater awareness and renewed fervor for the Church’s mission to bring Christ to all people, the mission to save souls. (Magnificat October, 2019)

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT SUNDAY – World Mission Sunday! We are called through our baptism to be part of the Church’s missionary efforts, through prayer, self-sacrifice and support of missionary vocations through material aid. Please prayerfully consider a contribution.

FALL TOUR DAY - The Pontifical College Josephinum welcomes you to its Fall Tour Day on Saturday, October 19, from Noon – 3:00 p.m. Explore the buildings, chapels and grounds of the only pontifical seminary outside of Italy! Tours highlight extensive woodwork, stained glass, terrazzo floors, intricate brickwork and sacred art. The 45-minute tours guided by seminarians begin every half-hour and are followed by refreshments. Registrations requested online at pcj.edu/tours. Questions? Please contact Meghan Henschen, at 614-985-2234

This saying is trustworthy: If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. (2 Timothy 2:11)

RESPECT LIFE MONTH IS OCTOBER - From the time we are knit together in our mothers’ wombs until we take our final breaths, each moment of our lives is a gift from God. While every season of life brings its own challenges and trials, each season also gives us new opportunities to grow in our relationship with God.

Today the gift of life is threatened in countless ways. Those who are most vulnerable, rather than receiving the protection they deserve, are all too often seen as a burden and as expendable. We can be tempted to despair, but Christ instead offers us unfailing hope.

Hope is the virtue “by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit” (CCC, 1817).

Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, “God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end” (Spe salvi 31).

Christians know “they have a future: it is not that they know the details of what awaits them, but they know in general terms that their life will not end in emptiness” (SS 2).

For this reason, a woman experiencing a difficult pregnancy can find strength to welcome her precious child into the world. A man facing a terminal diagnosis can see that the end of his earthly life is only the beginning of eternal life with Christ.

The Church teaches us that “the one who has hope lives differently” (SS 2). Christ’s promise of salvation does not mean that we will be spared from suffering. Rather, the promise of salvation ensures that even in the darkest moments of our lives, we will be given the strength to persevere. By virtue of this Christian hope, we can face any challenge or trial. When the seas of life swell and we are battered by the waves, hope allows us to remain anchored in the heart of God. May we hold fast to Christ our hope, from the beginning of life to its very end.

LIFE... A BEAUTIFUL GIFT - All are invited to attend the “Building a Culture of Life Conference” featuring Bishop Robert J. Brennan on October 19, from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. $25.00/$10.00 (Student) registration, lunch included, at St. John Neuman Church, Sunbury. Deadline is October 14, 2019. Please call (614) 241-2540

Please remember all priests (living and deceased) and our seminarians in your prayers - that they will remain faithful and holy. Continue to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life.
