ALL SAINT'S DAY - The Church celebrates holy men and women throughout the year on various saint days, but the Solemnity of All Saints is when the Church honors every saint: those officially known and honored on the Church calendar, and saints known only to God. We celebrate these holy individuals, and ask for their prayers and intercessions. The concept of All Saints Day is connected to the doctrine of The Communion of Saints. This is the Catholic teaching that all of God's people, on heaven, earth, and in Purgatory are spiritually connected and united. Catholics believe that the saints of God are just as alive as those on earth, and are constantly interceding on our behalf. The Catholic Catechism concisely describes this communion among believers, by which we are connected to Christ, and thus to one another: "Being more closely united to Christ, those who dwell in heaven fix the whole Church more firmly in holiness...They do not cease to intercede with the Father for us...So by their fraternal concern is our weakness greatly helped." There are thousands of canonized saints, that is those individuals officially recognized by the Church as holy men and women worthy of our imitation. Because miracles have been associated with them, and their lives have been fully examined and found holy by the Church, we have assurance they are prime examples of holiness, and powerful intercessors before God on our behalf. Christians have been officially honoring saints and martyrs since at least the second century AD. The vigil of the Feast (the eve) has grown up in English speaking countries as a festival in itself, All Hallows Eve, or Halloween. While some Christians refuse to observe the holiday, considering it "pagan," as far as the Church is concerned, the date is simply the eve of the feast of All Saints. In fact, many customs of Halloween reflect the Christian belief that on the feast's vigils we mock evil, because as Christians, it has no real power over us. (churchyear.net)

ALL SAINTS DAY IS A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION!

The vigil Mass for the feast day will be at 5:30 PM on Thursday evening. On Friday, (the actual Holy Day), Mass will be celebrated at 12:00 noon, and again at 5:30 PM.

*"God creates out of nothing. Wonderful you say.
Yes, to be sure, but he does what is still more wonderful:
he makes saints out of sinners."
(Soren Kierkegaard)*

*Life Holds only one tragedy, ultimately;
not to have been a saint.
(Leon Bloy)*

ALL SOULS DAY-The day after All Saints day is called All Soul's Day, a day to remember and offer prayers on behalf of all of the faithful departed. The soul of a person who dies goes to one of three places. The first is heaven, where a person goes who dies in a state of perfect grace and communion with God. The second is hell, where those who die in a state of mortal sin are, by choice, condemned eternally. The intermediate state is purgatory, where those free of mortal sin, but still in a state of lesser (venial) sin, must go. Purgatory is necessary so that souls can be cleansed and perfected before they enter into heaven. Consistent with these teachings and traditions, Catholics believe that through the prayers of the faithful on Earth, and in heaven, the dead are cleansed of their sins so they may enter into heaven. All Souls Day is not a Holy Day of Obligation, but we are strongly encouraged to attend Mass and to pray for our beloved dead. Mass at Holy Name will be at 8:30 AM on Saturday, the Solemnity of All Souls.

THE MONTH OF OCTOBER IS DEVOTED TO THE ROSARY - Pope Pius XII once said, "The Rosary is the compendium of the entire Gospel." That is to say, that each decade is dedicated to a single and significant moment in salvation history. The structure of the rosary, with its well-known, repetitious prayer should not be mistaken for the meaningless repetition denounced by Christ in the gospel of Matthew. It is instead a format that cultivates mental peace and interior space for meditation on these moments in the life of Christ that encapsulate the mystery of the Incarnation, the person of Christ, and the beautiful relationship that has been built between our God and his creation. So, although the prayers of the rosary are Marian, the devotion is very Christocentric and nourishes our interior and spiritual life in a way that non-meditative prayer does not. "Through the study of books one seeks God; by meditation one finds him." (St. Padre Pio)

PLEASE JOIN US here at Holy Name, each Sunday (year round) at 5:00 PM as we pray the Rosary in our Chapel.
